Open Spiral Red Rose & Yellow Chrysanthemum Garland - 1.5ft: A Blend of Beauty, Devotion & Tradition

Flowers have always been an integral part of Indian spirituality, culture, and traditions. Among them, garlands (maalai or haaram) hold a very special significance. They are not just decorative pieces but sacred offerings that symbolize purity, surrender, and divine connection.

The Open Spiral Red Rose & Yellow Chrysanthemum Garland - 1.5ft is a perfect example of devotion meeting artistry. Crafted with precision using fresh red roses and bright yellow chrysanthemums in an open spiral design, this garland radiates positivity, joy, and devotion.

Whether for daily puja rituals, festive occasions, temple offerings, weddings, or home decoration, this garland brings an aura of sacredness and celebration to every moment.

Symbolism of Red Roses & Yellow Chrysanthemums

Each flower in this garland carries a deep meaning in spirituality and culture:

- Red Roses - Symbolize love, devotion, and divine surrender. Roses are often offered to deities like Lord Vishnu, Goddess Lakshmi, and Lord Krishna. Their fragrance and beauty are believed to attract blessings.
- Yellow Chrysanthemums - Represent joy, wisdom, and prosperity. In Hindu rituals, yellow is considered highly auspicious and is often associated with Lord Ganesha and Goddess Saraswati. Chrysanthemums are also known for spreading positivity and energy.

Together, red and yellow flowers symbolize the balance of devotion (bhakti), knowledge (jnana), and prosperity (aishwarya).

Uses of Open Spiral Red Rose & Yellow Chrysanthemum Garland - 1.5ft

Daily Puja Offerings

A fresh garland is the most sacred offering to a deity. Placing this garland on idols during morning and evening prayers invites divine grace and positive energy into your home.

Temple Rituals

Temples regularly adorn deities with flower garlands. This spiral garland, with its bright and divine look, is ideal for such rituals.

Festivals & Celebrations

During festivals like Ganesh Chaturthi, Navratri, Diwali, and Vishu, decorating with garlands is considered highly auspicious. This garland adds color and purity to the festive atmosphere.

Weddings & Special Occasions

Garlands are a symbol of union and respect in weddings. Though compact, this garland is perfect for pre-wedding rituals, poojas, and welcoming guests.

Home & Cultural Décor

Beyond puja use, the garland can be used to decorate sacred corners, doorways, photo frames of deities, and community events.
