Spiral Red Rose, Yellow & White Chrysanthemum Garland - 2.5ft: A Divine Expression of Tradition and Elegance

Fresh flowers are deeply woven into Indian culture and spirituality. They symbolize purity, devotion, and the beauty of creation. Among the many traditional offerings, flower garlands hold a special place as they are considered an auspicious adornment for deities, ceremonies, and sacred spaces.

The Spiral Red Rose, Yellow & White Chrysanthemum Garland - 2.5ft is a perfect example of devotion meeting artistry. Expertly crafted with fresh red roses, yellow chrysanthemums, and white chrysanthemums arranged in an attractive spiral pattern, this garland reflects beauty, harmony, and reverence.

Whether used for daily puja, temple rituals, weddings, or festivals, this garland makes every moment more divine and memorable.

Symbolism of the Flowers in This Garland

Each flower used in this garland carries unique spiritual and cultural meaning:

- Red Roses – Represent love, devotion, and surrender to the divine. Red roses are often used in offerings to Lord Vishnu, Goddess Lakshmi, and Lord Krishna.
- Yellow Chrysanthemums – Symbolize positivity, wisdom, and blessings. Yellow is considered an auspicious color in Hindu rituals, often associated with Goddess Saraswati.
- White Chrysanthemums – Stand for purity, peace, and spiritual awakening. White flowers are frequently offered during sacred ceremonies to invoke divine blessings.

The combination of red, yellow, and white creates a powerful spiritual balance, symbolizing love, wisdom, and purity.
